ORDER OF TEMPORARY DETENTION
PENDING HEARING PURSUANT TO BAIL REFORM ACT

The defendant appeared before the undersigned on May 16, 2008, for a detention hearing. Tracee Plowell, Assistant United States Attorney, was present representing the government, and Richard L. Gaines was present representing the defendant. During the course of the hearing, defense counsel requested additional time beyond the five (5) days entitled to explore and investigate the immigration detainer. The government stated it had no objection. The Court, finding good cause, granted the defendant's request to continue the detention hearing. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The defendant shall be held in custody by the United States Marshal until Tuesday, May 27, 2008, at 10:00 a.m.; and then shall be brought before the undersigned and shall be produced for the detention hearing.

For good cause shown, the defendant's request not to contest, and to waive the detention hearing is hereby GRANTED.

It is therefore ORDERED that:

- (1) Defendant be detained.;
- (2) Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney

General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

- (3) Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
- (4) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with any court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
